Strategic report exemption

The Company has elected not to prepare a Strategic report. Under section 414B of the Companies Act 2006, the Company which, despite being part of ineligible group, otherwise qualifies as small and as such has taken advantage of the exemption available with regard to preparing a Strategic report.

Going concern

The directors have considered the going concern position of the Company at 31 March 2022 and the projected cash flows and financial performance of the Company for at least 12 months from the date of approval of these financial statements. The directors consider, after making appropriate enquiries and taking into consideration the current dormant status of the Company, that the Company has adequate resources to continue in operation as a going concern for the foreseeable future. Accordingly, the directors continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing these financial statements.

Statements of directors' responsibility in respect of the Directors' report and the financial statements

The directors are responsible for preparing the Directors' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs).

Under Company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable IFRS accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- assess the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern; and
- use the going concern basis of accounting unless they either intend to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and to enable the directors to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are responsible for such internal control as they determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

Auditors

For the year ended 31 March 2022 the Company was entitled to exemption from audit under section 480 of the Companies Act 2006.

The members have not required the Company to obtain an audit in accordance with section 476 of the Companies Act 2006.

The directors acknowledge their responsibilities for complying with the requirements of the Act with respect to accounting records and the preparation of the accounts.

By order of the Board of Directors,

H.S. Cairns
Company Secretary
